MOTION FOR APPROVAL OF FLSA SETTLEMENT

Case: 2:17-mc-00524
Assigned To : Waddoups, Clark
Assign. Date : 6/5/2017
Description: Krause v. Kindercare
Education

Pursuant to the mandate laid out in Lynn's Food Stores, 679 F.2d 1350 (11th Cir. 1982), the Parties seek Court approval of their proposed settlement of Plaintiff's Fair Labor Standards Act claims (the "Proposed FLSA Agreement"). A true and correct copy of the Proposed FLSA Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. The Parties have agreed to the Proposed FLSA Agreement which they deem to comply with the law and which they assert is fair and reasonable. The Parties will sign the Proposed FLSA Agreement once it has been approved by the Court.

I. THE PROPOSED AGREEMENT IS FAIR AND REASONABLE

The Court should approve the Proposed FLSA Agreement because a bona fide dispute exists and the proposed settlement is fair and equitable to all Parties concerned. In this case, Plaintiff claims that she was improperly classified as an exempt employee and that she is entitled to overtime wages. Defendant disputes this claim. Under the Proposed FLSA Agreement, the Defendant will pay a total of $7,000. One check for $1,500 will be payable to Plaintiff which includes all of her claimed overtime wages, cost reimbursements, and an equal amount of liquidated damages. A second check for $5,500 will be payable to Plaintiff's attorney which will cover the agreed-upon legal fees for the FLSA issues.¹ Defendant will issue both checks within twenty (20) business days of the Effective Date of the FLSA Agreement, as defined in Paragraph 13 of the Proposed FLSA Agreement. If a Party seeks to enforce the Proposed FLSA Agreement, the prevailing party shall be awarded attorney fees and costs.²

First, the Court must determine that a bona fide dispute exists. Peterson v. Mortg. Sources, Corp., No. CIV.A. 08-2660-KHV, 2011 WL 3793963, at *4 (D. Kan. Aug. 25, 2011). In this case, the Peterson factors weigh in favor of the Court approving the proposed settlement. Defendant runs a learning center for children, which historically has earned more than $500,000 annually, and has more than two (2) employees. The type of work performed by Plaintiff was child-teaching related which Defendant argues was exempt under the FLSA. Plaintiff contends that the position is non-exempt, that she worked more than 40 hours per work week, and that she was not properly paid overtime wages. Defendant disputes Plaintiff's claims. Nonetheless,

¹ The Parties are also entering into a separate settlement agreement which address claims other than the FLSA claims.

² For the benefit of Defendant, Plaintiff makes it known that she not only has no intent to bring any future cause of actions against them, she knows of no other cause of action she could bring.

Defendant reviewed its books and records, and calculated the amounts that could be owed under Plaintiff's theory. Defendant has agreed to pay those amounts in full.

There are relative strengths and weaknesses to each side's positions. Defendant could argue in good faith that Plaintiff did not work as many hours as she has claimed, or that she was exempt for purposes of the FLSA. Further, Defendant could argue that the non-payment of the overtime was due to honest errors, so liquidated damages should not apply. On the other hand, Plaintiff could argue that she has been a misclassified employee under the FLSA and that she could be entitled to full damages under her claim. In short, each side has good faith arguments and the Parties have a bona fide dispute under the FLSA.

Second, to approve an FLSA settlement, the Court must also scrutinize the settlement for fairness. See Baker v. D.A.R.A. II, Inc., No. CV-06-2887-PHX-LOA, 2008 WL 4368913, at *2 (D. Ariz. Sept. 24, 2008). In particular, courts are concerned that an FLSA plaintiff is receiving adequate compensation. Here, assuming Plaintiff's claim is accurate, the Parties substantively agree on the amount of FLSA wages owed and the attorney fees owed. The amount agreed to by the Parties in the Proposed FLSA Agreement is likely the maximum amount of recovery to which Plaintiff would be entitled if she successfully proved her claims.

The FLSA also requires that a settlement agreement include an award of reasonable attorney's fees. See Lee v. The Timberland Co., No. C 07-2367-JF, 2008 WL 2492295, at *2 (N.D. Cal. June 19, 2008). In this case, the FLSA Agreement provides for a payment of alleged FLSA wages and separate attorney's fees. In other words, the Plaintiff will be paid for her wage claim, and the Defendant will pay Plaintiff's legal fees, so that the legal fees will not come out of what is paid to Plaintiff.

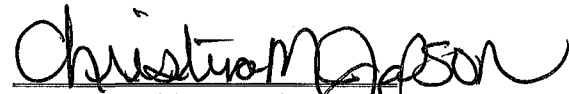

Finally, the Proposed FLSA Agreement does not contain unfair terms. Some proposed settlements have been rejected by the courts because the settlement has language that offended the vast, remedial purposes of the FLSA, such as a confidentiality agreement. This Proposed FLSA Agreement does not contain a confidentiality clause as to the settlement and no other terms offend the purposes of the FLSA.

II. CONCLUSION

The Parties request that the Court approve the Proposed FLSA Agreement which settles a bona fide dispute between the Parties regarding whether Plaintiff is entitled to overtime wages. Furthermore, the Proposed FLSA Agreement is fair in that it fully compensates Plaintiff for all claimed overtime and includes a separate payment for attorney's fees. Because Defendant has agreed to pay the maximum amount Plaintiff would be entitled to under her claims, the proposed FLSA Agreement should be deemed fair and reasonable. The Parties request that the Court approve the FLSA Agreement as attached.

Dated this 1st day of June, 2017.

WHEREAS, Claimant has made wage, overtime and other wage-related FLSA Claims pertaining to her employment with Employer, including such claims through Claimant's attorney, Gregory B. Smith, A L A, P.C. (the "FLSA Claims").

WHEREAS, Employer denies and disputes any and all of Claimant's alleged FLSA Claims and any other claims or wrongdoing with respect to Claimant and Claimant's employment with Employer;

WHEREAS, the parties wish to avoid the expense of litigation and desire to resolve any and all FLSA Claims alleged, or that could be alleged, arising from the events and circumstances surrounding Claimant's alleged injuries, employment with and separation from employment with Employer;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of and exchange for the promises, covenants, and releases contained herein, the parties mutually agree as follows:

1. Estimate of Wages Claimed and No Admission of Liability. Plaintiff estimates that she may have worked approximately as many as 20 (twenty) hours for Employer for which she may be owed overtime wages. The parties agree that the $1,500 FLSA Settlement Payment described in paragraph 3 would adequately meet or exceed the amount for Plaintiff's estimated wages she claims are owed through the Last Date of Employment, as defined in Section 2. This FLSA Agreement and compliance with it shall not be construed as an admission by Employer of any liability whatsoever or as an admission by Employer of any wrongdoing including any violation of Claimant's rights under any common law, statute or contract. Employer specifically disclaims any wrongdoing and disclaims any liability to Claimant for any violation of Claimant's rights.

2. Last Date of Employment. Claimant's last date of employment with Employer was, or will be, June 2, 2017 (the "Last Date of Employment"). Employer will continue to pay Claimant's wages, for time worked for Employer, through the Last Date of Employment.

3. Consideration. In consideration for the promises contained in this FLSA Agreement and the release of FLSA Claims as set forth below, and provided Claimant signs this FLSA Agreement, Employer will:

(a) Issue a check for wages made payable to "Kymberly Krause" in the amount of One Thousand and Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500), less applicable payroll withholdings ("FLSA Settlement Payment"). Employer will issue Claimant an IRS Form W-2 for this payment, which W-2 will be mailed to Claimant at her last known address provided to Employer by Claimant as of the Last Date of Employment; and

(b) Employer will issue a check for alleged attorneys' fees made payable to "A L A, P.C." in the amount of Five Thousand and Five Hundred Dollars ($5,500) ("Attorney Fee Payment"), for which a Form 1099 will be issued to A L A, P.C.

Within twenty (20) business days of the Effective Date of this FLSA Agreement, as defined below in Paragraph 13, Employer will mail the FLSA Settlement Payment check and the Attorney Fee Payment check to the attention of attorney Gregory B. Smith at the following address: A L A, P.C., 5600 S 111 E, Ste 105, Murray, UT 84107. A L A, P.C. will then deliver the FLSA Settlement Payment to Claimant.

4. No Amounts Owed. Claimant acknowledges that Employer shall owe Claimant nothing further once Claimant receives the FLSA Settlement Payment.

5. Release. In consideration of the obligations assumed by Employer as described above, Claimant waives, acquits and forever discharges Employer and, without limitation, its predecessors and successors, parents, subsidiaries, divisions, and affiliates (including, but not limited to, KinderCare Learning Centers LLC, KCE Champions LLC, and KinderCare Education at Work LLC, formerly known as Children's Creative Learning Centers LLC), and all of each such entity's officers, directors, members, managers, shareholders, claimants, insurers, agents, attorneys or assigns, in their individual and representative capacities (collectively, "Employer" or "Released Parties"), from any and all FLSA Claims, demands, actions, or causes of action, whether known or unknown, arising from or related in any way to any employment of or termination of employment of, or future failure or refusal to employ Claimant by Released Parties, or any other past or future claim, whether known or unknown and whether or not asserted (except as reserved by this FLSA Agreement or where expressly prohibited by law) that relates in any way to Claimant's employment, separation from employment, compensation, benefits, reemployment, or application for employment, with the exception of any claim Claimant may have against Released Parties for enforcement of this FLSA Agreement.
